"OLIVETTE" REVIVED.

It is a full decade, perhaps more, since Audran's 'Olivette' cheered the lovers of comic operatia in New-York. Memory associates it with Camerine Lewis and a particularly attractive season of operetta, marred only by the adaptation for English use made by Farnie. Some of the scent of the unhappy mesalhance for which the adapter was responsible lingered about the "Olivette" which was brought back at the Herald Square Theatre last night by the comat the Herald Square Theatre last night by the company managed by Steindorff & Ebert. But it was only in the dialogue that it was discouraging, for the company is held down to a proper appreciation of the musical value of its undertakings by Mr. Steindorff, and most of the melodies sounded as fresh and inspiriting as ever they did, while the tunes of a terder vein were tastefully and intelligently cared for by Miss Finiayson. The comedy pasted a good deal, but that was a natural and pardonable first night phenomenon, and those who like "Gilvette" may count on a pleasant evening if they go to the Recald Square while it occupies the stage.

ADMIRAL CLITZ DANGEROUSLY ILL.

Rear-Admiral J. M. B. Clitz is lying dangerously iii at No. 170 West Eighty-fifth-st. Admiral Clitz, who is now in his seventy-fifth year, retired from active service in 1884, but continued in the enjoyment of service in 1884, but continued in the enjoyment of good health up to about three years ago, when he had a slight apopiectic shock. About three weeks ago he suffered another shock, and since then has been unable to speak, and has apparently not yet regained the use of his mental faculties. It is thought by his physician that the Admiral is unlikely ever again to return to a condition of complete mental soundness, but the immediate result of his illness is uncertain.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

At Terrace Garden to-night "The Bat" will be sung, and for to-morrow night the selection is "The Beggar Student." On Thursday night Suppe's new operetta, "The Model," will be sung for the first time in this country.

The opening of the new roof garden on the Grand Central Palace has been postponed from to-morrow night to Thursday.

It will doubtless be joyful news to many that there is to be another continuous performance variety theatre. It is the Standard, which the present manager, William Sells, will open on that startlingly popular plan on August 29.

WHITNEY PREDICTS DISPUPTION.

A PLAIN DECLARATION.

There is no mistaking the significance of Mr. Whitney's lates interview. He reams that the adoption of the free-silver policy by the Demogratic party will drive every numl-money Demograt out of the party and that it will not only suffer overwhelming defeat, but the country will again be divided by sectional lines. From The Pittsburg Dispatch.

SUGGESTION OF A BOLT. From The Philadelphia Record.

If the silverites madly persist in imperilling the interests of the country Mr. Whitney plainly points out the path which the sound-money Democracy will take

ONLY SAFETY FOR HONEST DEMOCRATS. From The Rochester Herald.

From The Rochester Herald.

No Democrat need be afraid of the result of the policy that Mr. Whitney outlines. Nothing is more certain than that this wild fanaticism that has select upon the South and Wess will pass away. Free silverism is as absurd as a doctrine and as ruinous as a policy as greenbackism. When it has worked its harm, in case it becomes the law of the land, it will be repullated and loathed by the very men responsible for it. Only by taking the position that Mr. Whitney has can the Democratic party be saved from the odium that will attach to it.
